COUNT I

PLAINTIFF VS ALL DEFENDANTS
VIOLATION OF HIPPA

13. Plaintiff incorporates by reference averments one (1) through twelve (12) as though set forth fully herein.
14. In November, 1999, Plaintiff Akim F. Czmu first consulted Defendant Dr. Gary Kramer, a psychiatrist for treatment of panic attacks resulting from the stress caused by his partner Defendant William J. Kennard, Jr.
15. Without Plaintiff's consent, Defendant Dr. Kramer transmitted detailed psychiatric information to multiple other mental health care providers including Defendants Dr. Reeves, Fishkin, Hoyme as well as Defendant Neil Bonavita, a psychiatric social worker working with Defendant Reeves.
16. Defendants Reeves and Bonavita threatened Plaintiff with involuntary commitment if he did not agree to inpatient admission at Pottstown Memorial Hospital's psychiatric ward. Prior to that time, Plaintiff had never been hospitalized for any psychiatric condition.
17. With no other option, Plaintiff agreed under duress to be admitted to Pottstown Memorial Hospital's psychiatric ward.
18. In 2003, Defendants Bonavita and Reeves involuntarily committed Plaintiff without determining whether he was a risk to himself or others.

19. The involuntary commitment contradicted all the medical facts as Plaintiff was not a threat to himself or anyone.
20. Plaintiff was taken to Pennsylvania Hospital where a psychiatric evaluation by a Board Certified Psychiatrist demonstrated absolutely no basis for involuntary commitment, no need for voluntary inpatient admission, and no need for any change in his outpatient program.
21. In 2007, Defendant Finkelstein, Plaintiff's family doctor called Defendant Fishkin to discuss Plaintiff's medical condition and treatment without Plaintiff's consent.
22. In 2004, Plaintiff was referred to Defendant Dr. Hoyme, a psychiatrist working with Defendant Homeland Security who discussed all of Plaintiff's treatment with Defendant Homeland Security, again without Plaintiff's consent.
23. From 2004 to 2007 without consent, Defendant Hoyme discussed Plaintiff's condition with Plaintiff's partner, Defendant Jackson.
24. Defendants' disclosure flagrantly violated confidentiality mandated under HIPPA.
WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment in his favor together with interest, costs and attorneys fndees.

COUNT II

FENTON, AND HOYME
DELIBERATE MISDIAGNOSIS AND DRUGGING TO CONTROL PLAINTIFF

25. In November of 1999, Plaintiff saw Defendant Dr. Kramer for panic problems which he

Dr. Kramer diagnosed as Clinical Depression and placed him on massive doses of antidepressants.

26. Even though there was no evidence of this diagnosis, Defendant Dr. Kramer prescribed larger and larger doses of medications in an attempt to sedate Plaintiff and convince him that he had a psychiatric illness when he didn't.
27. The doses of medications increased exponentially despite the lack of any basis resulting in severe sedation.
28. Defendant Dr. Kramer transferred Plaintiff to Defendant Dr. Reeves and was treated by Defendant Dr. Fishkin, Finkelstein, Hoyme and Fenton continuing treatment with no psychiatric illness to convince Plaintiff that he had a nonexistent psychiatric condition.
29. Plaintiff was treated from 1999 to the present in the same way by multiple psychiatrists.
30. At no time did Plaintiff have any psychiatric condition or did he need any psychiatric treatment.
31. The treatment rendered by these psychiatrists was fraudulent, improper, and demonstrated wanton and reckless disregard for the Plaintiff's well being and placed Plaintiff at risk for death and severe medical complications.
32. The treatment rendered was a gross deviation from accepted medical standards and constitutes grounds for medical license revocation.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff hereby demands judgement in his favor together with interest, costs and attorneys fees.

COUNT III
PLAINTIFF VS DEFENDANTS FINKELSTEIN AND FISHKIN
ABANDONMENT

35. Defendant Finkelstein demanded an exorbitant copying fee that grossly exceeded that permitted under Pennsylvania law.
36. Since Plaintiff did not have his records, Plaintiff's search for new doctors was severely hindered and prevented Plaintiff from securing proper medical treatment.
